BAY STREET PLAYERS YOUNG PEOPLE'S THEATRE DIVISION IS NOW ENROLLING FOR THE WINTER SESSION

Central Florida's oldest continuously running children's theatre education program resumes classes for the winter and spring sessions.

(Eustis, FL)... Enrollment for the Young People's Theatre (YPT) Winter Session is now open. Eight Week "Test the Spotlight" classes for young people ages Pre-School through 12th grade will begin the week of January 5th. Classes also resume that week for the Young People's Theatre Academy and performance Touring Companies.

For information on registration and class times, call the Box Office at 352.357.7777 or visit the YPT section of the website at www.baystreetplayers.org. YPT is sponsored in part by United Arts of Central Florida.

All students enrolled in the academy and winter sessions of YPT have the opportunity to participate in the Take The Stage! YPT Performance Project. This year's fully staged spring production, The Music Man Jr. will be presented to the public May 15, 16, and 17 2009.

YPT provides a unique chance for young people to exercise their imagination and grow in wonderful and unexpected ways. Professional teaching artists lead students through engaging, interactive sessions that provide students with a sense of community, good techniques, self-confidence, self-discipline, and magical memories to last a lifetime.

Since 1976, YPT is devoted to improving the lives of children through the experience, educational training, and performance of theatrical arts. Need based tuition scholarships are available for all classes through the Bay Street Players Ed Dawkins YPT Scholarship Tuition Fund.

The Box Office is located at the historic State Theatre, 109 N. Bay Street, in Downtown Eustis and is open to the public from 1:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. Now celebrating its 34th Season, Bay Street Players is a non-profit organization striving to create a showcase theatre that is central to the cultural life and development of the community.
