

Presenting: Neil Simon's First Broadway Comedy Smash— COME BLOW YOUR HORN!

(Eustis, FL)... Bay Street Players will open Neil Simon's first Broadway comedy smash Come Blow Your Horn, April 16, 2010, which will run four weeks through May 9, 2010 at the historic State Theatre in downtown Eustis. Come Blow Your Horn is generously sponsored in part by United Southern Bank, United Arts of Central Florida, and the City of Eustis.

Come Blow Your Horn centers around Alan Baker, a swinging single with time, money and women to spare as he welcome his rebellious and eager kid brother, Buddy, into his bachelor apartment while their horrified parents can only watch and pray. This farcical romp became a hit movie starring Frank Sinatra and now sets its sights on rousing the audiences of Bay Street Players.

Artistic Director David Clevinger designed and directed the production. His team includes: William Dumas, Lighting Designer; Kate Olsen & Bonnie Swanson, Costume Designers and a crew of community volunteers.

The cast features talent from all over Central Florida: Rick Breese (Alan Baker), Austin Langford (Buddy Baker), Jim Meadows (Mr. Baker), Paula Keenan (Mrs. Baker), Tiffany Scoggins (Connie Dayton) and Debra Sussman (Peggy Evans).
